

Asif Ibrahim, Chairman of Chittagong Stock Exchange (CSE)

A webinar titled, “LDC Graduation and Aspirations for 2041: Perspective of a Private Sector Leader,” was held at University of Liberal Arts, Bangladesh (ULAB) on Thursday.

The university’s Centre for Enterprise and Society (CES) organized the session which featured Asif Ibrahim, chairman of Chittagong Stock Exchange (CSE), and vice chairman of Newage Group of Industries.

The informative webinar touched upon Bangladesh’s journey and growth, and the drivers of sustainable growth that need to be unlocked to achieve that.

Following the lecture, there was a question-answer session where students, young professionals, and others asked questions ranging from leadership to capital markets and innovation.
